HERITAGE

Dating back to 1914, the building was inaugurated in an Art Nouveau style and in 1937 had its first major change to an Art Deco exterior, displaying a distinctive blend of heritage and contemporary. Here you'll be transported from the eclectic style façade into the au-courant lobby that overlooks the perennial Les Collonnades. The hotel began its life as a building serving the Royal Palace guests and over the years has received many transformations with the most current in 2022. In total, InterContinental Athenee Palace Bucharest houses 283 modern rooms and suites, with the Crown Jewel being the Queen Mary Royal Suite. This historic landmark presents a wealth of premium amenities, warm hospitality, and bespoke cuisine for both leisure and business guests.
