The First Light of the Season

Tree-Lighting Ceremony, the moment
when La Saison Lumière begins

The festive season begins with a tree-lighting evening, carefully staged with Christmas music and timeless festive traditions.

On 3 December, join us with loved ones in the historic elegance of Les Colonnades and Le Diplomate Ballroom as we unveil the first glow of La Saison Lumière. As the Christmas tree comes to life, the hotel is transformed into a luminous winter setting, inviting guests to pause, celebrate and share in the anticipation of the season ahead.

The evening unfolds with the warmth of festive melodies from around the world, creating a gentle musical journey through cherished Christmas traditions and cultures. A refined selection of festive canapés and delicate desserts will complement the evening, while a special Christmas raffle celebrates the joy of giving which gives the season its special glow.

A Christmas Tale at the Palace

An Afternoon with Santa, Stories & Gingerbread

This Christmas, little dreams come to life at the Palace.

On 20 December, families are invited to JORJ for a festive afternoon filled with imagination, delicious treats and a little Christmas magic.

Children will create their very own gingerbread house, adding their own touch to a sweet Christmas tradition, before meeting Santa Claus and sharing their wishes for Christmas Day.

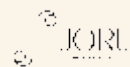

While the little ones enjoy their festive adventures, the whole family can savour a specially created selection of sweet and savoury treats, from cranberry scones and seasonal fruit tart to mini Christmas creations and festive favourites.

With Santa and his little helpers, festive treats and the joy of creating something together, A Christmas Tale at the Palace is an afternoon to be remembered long after Christmas morning.

Christmas Eve, Illuminated

A Festive Christmas Eve Dinner at JORJ

Let Christmas Eve unfold around the table at JORJ.

On 24 December, gather with those closest to you for an elegant festive dinner inspired by the flavours of the season.

The evening begins with a delicate foie gras amuse-bouche, followed by a refined succession of smoked trout, scampi tortelloni and tender duck breast, before concluding with a comforting festive dessert of baked apple, cinnamon and vanilla.

Thoughtfully composed and unmistakably JORJ, the four-course experience brings together seasonal ingredients, contemporary technique and the warmth of sharing a special evening around the table.

Raise a glass, savour the evening and let the anticipation of Christmas unfold.
